

Name: _____

Period: _____

Date: _____

The Federalist, Number 10 Reading Guide

Directions: You will find answers to the question in the Federalist, Number 10.

Pages: 35-36 Introduction

1. Who wrote The Federalist, Number 10? When was it written?
2. When did the Constitutional Convention adjourn?
3. Who were the supporters of the Constitution?
4. Who were the opponents of the Constitution?
5. What was the name given to the series of documents that supported the Constitution?
6. How many articles were written by “Publius”?
7. Who were the three writers of The Federalist?
8. Who wrote the most?
9. Which is the single most famous essay?
10. When did New York ratify the Constitution?
11. When did the last state ratify the Constitution?

Pages: 36-42 Federalist Number 10

12. What does a well constructed Union break and control?

What are the two methods of curing mischiefs of faction:

13.

14.

Name: _____

Period: _____

Date: _____

The Federalist, Number 10 Reading Guide

Directions: You will find answers to the question in the Federalist, Number 10.

Pages: 35-36 Introduction

1. Who wrote The Federalist, Number 10? When was it written?
2. When did the Constitutional Convention adjourn?
3. Who were the supporters of the Constitution?
4. Who were the opponents of the Constitution?
5. What was the name given to the series of documents that supported the Constitution?
6. How many articles were written by “Publius”?
7. Who were the three writers of The Federalist?
8. Who wrote the most?
9. Which is the single most famous essay?
10. When did New York ratify the Constitution?
11. When did the last state ratify the Constitution?

Pages: 36-42 Federalist Number 10

12. What does a well constructed Union break and control?

What are the two methods of curing mischiefs of faction:

13.

14.

What are the two methods of removing causes of faction:

15.

16.

17. What is to faction if air is to fire?

18. What is sown into the nature of man?

19. What is the most common and durable source of faction?

20. What ought to hold the balance between creditors and debtors?

21. What legislative act offers greater opportunity and temptation to trample on the rules of justice?

22. Who will not always be at the helm?

23. What cannot be removed from factions?

24. What has been spectacles of turbulence and contention?

25. Who must be raised to a certain number to guard against the cabals of a few?

26. Whose character out to be supported by the pleasure and pride in being republicans?

27. What name is signed at the end of the document?

What are the two methods of removing causes of faction:

15.

16.

17. What is to faction if air is to fire?

18. What is sown into the nature of man?

19. What is the most common and durable source of faction?

20. What ought to hold the balance between creditors and debtors?

21. What legislative act offers greater opportunity and temptation to trample on the rules of justice?

22. Who will not always be at the helm?

23. What cannot be removed from factions?

24. What has been spectacles of turbulence and contention?

25. Who must be raised to a certain number to guard against the cabals of a few?

26. Whose character out to be supported by the pleasure and pride in being republicans?

27. What name is signed at the end of the document?